Site: _____ Reporter: _____ Table Number:

Table Discussion Summary 1

What were the three key points or common themes in your group discussion?

Alaska's Present: Service to our communities

1. We are here today because we are Alaskans and so we will begin by asking, "What does it mean to be Alaskan?"

2. We are each a part of a community in the state and our communities face unique and varied challenges. What do you see as the challenges facing your community?

3. What are you doing and what can you do to address the challenges in your community?

Site: _____ Reporter: _____ Table Number:

Table Discussion Summary 2

What were the three key points or common themes in your group discussion?

Alaska's Past: Appreciation for our heritage

1. Change can be slight or sudden; it can feel overwhelming or imperceptible; but it is always a constant. How has Alaska changed in your lifetime?

2. Imagine that you could choose to live at some other time in Alaska History. When would you live and what would you be remembered for today?

3. Our communities contain a great depth of collective knowledge. Who in your community could you connect with to strengthen your understanding of Alaska's History?

Site: _____ Reporter: _____ Table Number:

Table Discussion Summary 3

What were the three key points or common themes in your group discussion?

Alaska's Future: Our next 50 years and beyond

1. Write down every word, thought and image that describes your vision for Alaska's next 50 years.

2. The future of Alaska is a responsibility we all share. What can you do to address the challenges in your community and to help create your vision for Alaska's future?

3. What topics or questions should be addressed at the Conference of Young Alaskans 2009?